INTRODUCTION

Welcome power fans to Issue #4. I am Zordon, spatial leader of the Power Rangers. This month Alpha Five, my robotic assistant and I have scoured our data bases in search of the most exciting pictures and information we could find and we feel that this month's power offering is the best yet, packed with another P.R.ofile, more chronicles, posters and, of course, competitions!

Finally we must apologise to you, our loyal readers, for that evil interstellar witch Rita Repulsa's intrusion within the pages of the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers. Every month, no matter how hard Alpha and I seek to stop her, she manages to sneak in with her vile and sorcerous Letters Page and Monster Harvest! So we ask you NOT to support her evil requests for monster creations. If you're not careful, your monster might be the one to defeat my five colourful teenagers with attitude! So be true to the cause, don't write to Rita with your problems, unless you like having that nasty witch poke fun and laugh at you! Write instead to the Power Fans, where not only will you have your queries answered by a Power Ranger, but you'll also be treated with respect.

And finally, before we get on with the action there's just time to tell you about an exciting offer. In next month's issue we're giving away FREE SMARTIES SMARTIAN STICKERS! But now enough, it's time for the one, the only MIGHTY MORPHIN POWER RANGERS!

THE POWER RANGERS CHRONICLES

Journey with us now as we chart the legendary adventures of those five amazing teenage heroes, the MIGHTY MORPHiN POWER RANGERS!

This month Power Rangers Chronicles finds Zack on the receiving end of a knasty birthday present from Rita, sees Trini's seven year old cousin flat on her back for clowning around and her Uncle kept in the dark by the Dark Warrior.

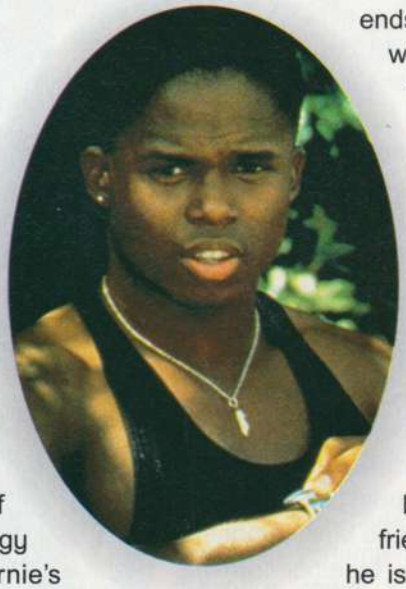
EPISODE #11:
"HAPPY BIRTHDAY, ZACK"

Late one night, at the Angel Grove Gym and Juice Bar, thanks to the kind help of Arnie, the bar's owner, Billy, Trini, Kimberly and Jason are busy preparing a surprise birthday party for their friend and fellow Power Ranger, Zack. While Jason and the girls hang up decorations and hand-paint large banners, Billy rescues Arnie from his latest and least successful invention, the Cake-O-Matic, which, true to form has splurged out of control and covered Arnie in gooey, soggy cake mix, much to Billy and Arnie's annoyance, and the others amusement.



Spying on our teenage heroes is the evil interstellar witch, Rita Repulsa and her hideous cronies, Baboo, Squatt, Goldar and monster inventor Finster. Inspired by the surprise party preparations below, Rita cackles with vile delight as a new scheme is hatched. "I'll give those Power Rangers a surprise they'll never forget! Hahaha!" she cackles. "What's it to be this time, your putridness?" fawns Squatt. And as always Finister supplies the answer in the shape of the ghastly Knasty Knight, a medieval-inspired, ruthless monster, who we discover has helped Rita in the past with her odious schemes.

Meanwhile back at the Gym and Juice Bar, Bulk and Skull, everyone's favourite inept bullies - NOT! - turn up and try to intimidate our pals, but succeed only in humiliating themselves, as always! Skull ends up buried up to his neck in cake mix while Bulk, after colliding head first into two metal poles, ends up falling into a box of balloons, with ear-popping results!

Later with the mess cleaned up, Zack is seen heading towards the bar! And it's only thanks to a lightning speed clear-up that the kids manage to save the birthday surprise, hiding all the bunting and themselves before Zack walks in. Zack is puzzled by Arnie's strange behaviour, not realising that his friends are hiding behind the bar. Luckily he is convinced by Arnie that his friends aren't there and he heads off to find them.

Later that night, in the woods just outside Angel Grove, Rita and Co. arrive to prepare for their latest fiendish scheme. Finster and Baboo forge a formidable sword for the Knasty Knight to wield, while Rita supplies a powerful magical spell that will enable it to cut through anything!

Morning finds our pals at Angel Grove High School preparing for another day. Zack, eager to share his birthday excitement, fishes for a birthday card and a 'happy birthday' from Kimberly, who pretends to have forgotten, thanking Zack instead for reminding her about her pet poodle's birthday! Poor old Zack wanders off after school, feeling very depressed, convinced his closest friends have forgotten all about him. Just then, Rita turns up and throws him her own birthday surprise in the shape of the Knasty Knight!

Zack quickly morphs into the Black Ranger, but the Knasty Knight's powerful sword easily outclasses Zack's power axe, causing it to melt! Weakened by this terrible onslaught, Goldar leaps into action, delivering a thumping wallop that sends the Black Ranger tumbling down a cliff! Zordon, sensing a disturbance in the Morphin Grid, alerts the other Rangers, who race to their comrade's aid. Amazingly, even together, their might and weapons are no match for Rita's fiendish creation as one by one their power weapons are shorted out and melted by the Knight! In a last ditch effort the Rangers combine their blasters' power and unleash the Hyper Beam which, incredibly, is easily deflected back at them by the Knight's sword! With the Rangers dazed and disoriented Rita launches her magic staff. "It's time to grow!" she commands as her monstrous creation grows to gigantic proportions. "Mastodon Power! Let's toast this dude!" shouts Zack defiantly as the Power Rangers respond by summoning their Dinozords, who quickly morph together forming the mighty Megazord! "Let's show them some MEGAZORD power!" exclaims Jason.

In a terrible explosion of sparks these two titanic titans clash, each raining blows on the other with giant swords! And yet, once again the Knasty Knight easily outclasses the Rangers, sending the Megazord crashing to the ground - its sword, smoking and half melted, shorted out like all their other weapons! As the Knasty Knight moves in to finish them off, Zack suddenly realises how to defeat him. "His sword is absorbing any power we send against him and reflecting it back at us! That's how he caused our weapons to burn out! Let's see how he likes a taste of his own medicine!"

With seconds to spare, Zack reprograms the Megazord computer system, just as the Knight unleashes another energy blast attack! But Zack's quick thinking has saved the day!

The Megazord easily absorbs the attack, recharging itself and its sword! With an incredible surge of power the Megazord leaps to its feet and shatters the Knight's weapon! Then the Megazord unleashes a super-concentrated blast of energy, far more than the Knasty Knight can withstand! In a fiery explosion the Knasty Knight is utterly destroyed and Rita's latest plan for defeating the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers has been thwarted! Go! Go! Power Rangers! The world is safe again. Rita and Co. promptly retreat back to the lunar HQ to lick their wounds and prepare for another sneaky attack.

Later that day our five amazing teenage heroes return to the Angel Grove Gym and Juice Bar and spring their surprise party. Realising his friends haven't forgotten his special day, Zack is delighted, and together with all their Angel Grove friends they get down to enjoying a really good party and boy, haven't they've earned it!

EPISODE #12:
"NO CLOWNING AROUND"

It's a beautifully sunny weekend in Angel Grove and the townsfolk are being treated to the joys of a travelling fun fair, which has set up on the outskirts of the town. While the good people of Angel Grove have fun, riding the ferris wheel, the carousel, eating candyfloss, visiting the sideshow attractions and watching a troupe of performing clowns, Jason, Billy and Kimberly are being treated to a display of stilt walking by fellow Power Ranger, Zack. Those bungling buffoons Bulk and Skull, as always, have more fun causing trouble than actually enjoying the fair. Trini arrives with her seven year old cousin Sylvia, who she's looking after for the day, and together our friends head off to watch a gymnastics display.

Our pals get roped in to taking part in the display. Trini tells Sylvia to stay put, reminding her not to talk to or go off with strangers, as she takes part in building a human pyramid. Trini climbs to the top and suddenly spies the leader of the clown troupe lure away her young cousin. The Yellow Ranger is worried and with good reason... because everything at the fair is not as it seems..!

The fair is actually an elaborate trap! The latest dastardly scheme to capture and defeat the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers masterminded by that evil interstellar witch, Rita Repulsa! The clowns are really Putties who are being led by Rita's newest monster creation Pine Octopus, although he too, like the Putties is disguised as a clown called Pineapple.

The human pyramid collapses and Trini rushes after her young cousin as the clown leads her away from the fair. Sylvia tries to get away from his evil clutches as he reveals his true nature by throwing a handful of mysterious space dust at Trini. Sylvia stumbles away from him and into the path of the space dust, getting well and truly coated - with shocking results! Trini watches in horror as her young charge is magically transformed into a 2-dimensional cardboard cut-out! The clown, laughing maniacally, runs off while Trini carries Sylvia back to her friends and warns them about the sinister clown. Luckily, Billy, the Rangers' genius inventor, is on hand and sends Trini to his garage where he has special equipment that can analyse Sylvia's problem and work out a solution. He radios ahead to Alpha Five, Zordon's robotic assistant to teleport there and help her.

With the fun fair in danger the friends waste no time in evacuating it! Suddenly the clowns reveal their true selves, transforming back into their Putty personae and attacking! Courageously the teens fight back, against an overwhelming number of Putties, but with team work, their superior fighting skills and agility our pals make short work of them. Pineapple, enraged by their failure transforms into his true self - Pine Octopus an eight-tentacled, multi-coloured, half pineapple, half octopus, space monster! The pals instantly respond by morphing into Power Ranger guise, a move that saves them from a dousing with Pine Octopus's strange magical dust.

Rita, watching the action from her lunar HQ is getting angrier by the second at the failure of her minions and launches her power staff at Earth, shrieking her oft-shouted chant, "IT'S TIME TO GROW, MONSTER! GROW!!" With her staff buried firmly in the ground, powerful arcs of her unearthly magic course through Pine Octopus and he rockets to gigantic proportions. The Rangers retreat, as the hideous space monster stomps towards them, sprinkling his dust as he goes.

Meanwhile at Billy's garage, Trini and Alpha Five have isolated the cause of Sylvia's condition. "She's had all the water removed from her body!" exclaims the highly animated saucer headed robot. "All we need to do is replace the missing water." While Trini removes the numerous wires connecting Sylvia with the banks of machines, Alpha grabs a bucket of water and showers the young girl. The two of them wait but nothing seems to happen! Trini, frantically rechecks the equipment, while Alpha grabs another bucket of water and lets fly with it. SPLASH! Poor Sylvia awakens, returned to normal, but finds herself soaked to the skin! In the confusion, Trini hides among the other machinery, so as not to be discovered.

Remember that Sylvia doesn't know her cousin is actually one of the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers! With her cousin now safe, Trini races off to help her comrades.

Back at the fair, the Rangers find themselves unable to fight the now-towering Pine Octopus on their own, so they summon their awesome Dinozords, and fight back! Billy the Blue Ranger, piloting his triceratops-inspired, armour-plated, caterpillar-tracked Dinozord launches its impressive grappling hooks, snaring the strange monster. Black Ranger Zack closes in, charging his mastodon-inspired Dinozord... a massive, yellow-trimmed, black-painted vehicle at Pine Octopus. When he's in range, Zack fires a double dose of his trunk-mounted freezing ray at the monster, encasing him within an enormous block of ice. With no time to spare, our heroic teenagers link up their respective Dinozords and power up into Battle Mode! They unleash an awesome blast of pure energy which utterly defeats Rita's vile creature, and rescues the Earth once more from her cunning scheme for world domination!

Rita, back at her lunar HQ plays her favourite game of blaming others for her mistakes and passing the buck, chasing her cronies around with her staff, ranting and raving all the time. Doesn't she know a bad workman always blames his (her) tools?

Meanwhile back at the fair, the townsfolk have returned to enjoy the day, thanks to those Mighty Morphin Power Rangers! Our teenage chums are also there, at long last able to enjoy themselves, safe in the knowledge that for the moment anyway, they have defeated another of Rita's cowardly assaults. While Billy entertains his friends with his latest invention, 'Trainer Stilts', Sylvia thanks Trini for being the 'best babysitter in the world', and apologises for going off with the clown in the first place. She's learnt her lesson, and will never again follow strange adults no matter how friendly they seem. So all in all a great day - and it's all thanks to everyone's favourite five teenagers with attitude!

EPISODE 13:
DARK WARRIOR

Jason is leading the martial arts class at Angel Grove High, and Billy is watching wistfully. "I sure wish I had Jason's outstanding moves!" he murmurs to himself. Suddenly he's even more in need of Jason's skills...BULK and SKULL start to pick on him - they need change for the computer game! Before he knows what's happening, they turn him upside down and shake the cash out of his pockets! Luckily Trini comes to the rescue, banging their greedy heads together! KLUNK! When will they learn bullying never pays!

As the bullies reel away, not knowing what hit them, Trini tells the others that her Uncle Howard is coming to visit. He's a scientist who also specialises in karate...the ideal tutor for Billy!

Unknown to the friends, RITA is also interested in Uncle Howard! She's been spying on him, and is after his new INVISIBILTY FORMULA! Following her orders, Finster creates a shadowy soldier of darkness! Ruthless, fiendishly clever and super-sharp in battle...beware the DARK WARRIOR!

Rita immediately puts her latest wicked plan into action! While Trini's uncle is away, her new monster creeps into his lab with SQUATT and BABOO. Rita's diabolical creation finds the special formula, and tells the other monsters to check it. They instantly gulp it down!
"I told you to CHECK it, not DRINK it!" roars the DARK WARRIOR furiously. Now Rita will have to capture Uncle Howard to get another sample of the precious liquid!

Meanwhile at the school, Uncle Howard is looking for his niece. He absent-mindedly leaves a jar of his formula on the counter of the Juice Bar. Trini spots him and introduces him to her friends - especially Billy!

"Hello, KARATE - SCIENTIST!" says Billy, awestruck! Trini explains that Billy is looking for tuition. Uncle Howard is more than happy to teach Billy karate and wisdom - he is ready to start straight away!

In the park, Uncle Howard's first lesson is beginning when out of nowhere the PUTTIES appear! The gibbering grey creatures swarm all over them! Billy manages to defend himself, but Uncle Howard is their real target! While Billy watches helplessly, they bundle the old man off his feet and vanish! Rita's plan is working!

The Dark Warrior has Trini's uncle trapped in a cave and tied to a huge ticking TIME BOMB! If the scientist doesn't reveal the location of his formula in one hour he'll be blown to bits! Poor old Uncle Howard can't even remember where he left the jar!

At the school, our heroes are surprised to receive a mysterious gift of black balloons! The balloons pop to reveal a message hidden inside...it's an ultimatum from the Dark Warrior! If they want to see Uncle Howard again they must bring his special formula to the park. Things are getting serious! The team teleport to ZORDON's command centre, where the great cosmic wizard tells them all about Rita's latest vile villainy!

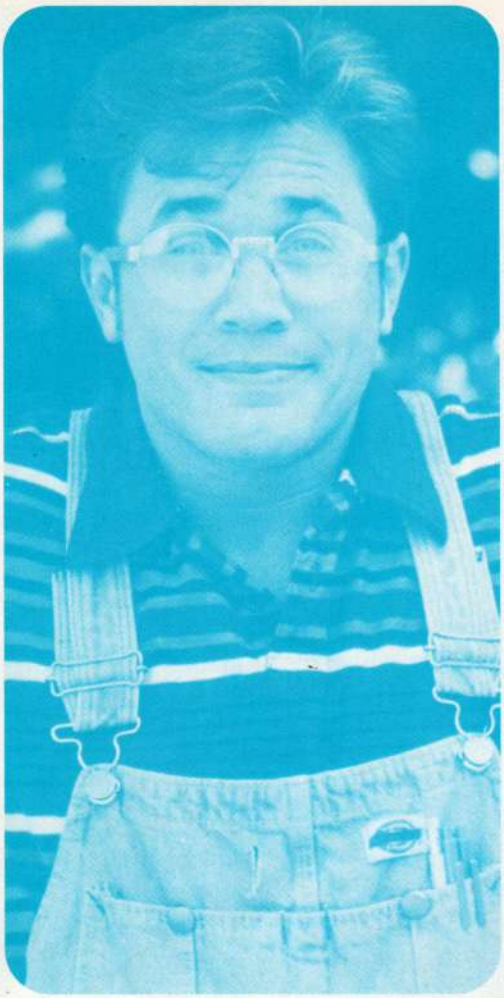
Without even stopping to morph into their POWER RANGER suits, the gang beam into the danger zone! The Dark Warrior isn't there, and it doesn't take long for the determined friends to overpower the Putties! Uncle Howard is found, tied up in the cave...now all they have to do is defuse the bomb!
"Use your karate training to focus your mental energy!" urges the old man. Billy concentrates, and in seconds his brilliant mind has worked out how to disarm the deadly device! It's a perfect rescue operation!

Trini is furious that her relative has been caught up in Rita's plans.
"Now that my uncle's safe," she says, " let's put the Dark Warrior's lights out!"
They MORPH into action, transforming into the dynamic teenage heroes with attitude, the MIGHTY MORPHIN POWER RANGERS! The Dark Warrior appears on the scene and to the amazement of the team, he shrugs off their attack with ease! Swatting them away like a swarm of multi-coloured mosquitoes, he then rocks and shocks them with thunderous blasts from his power cannon!

"YOU FOOLS DON'T STAND A CHANCE!" bellows their over-confident enemy. But he hasn't reckoned with ZORD POWER! The team call up their dinosaur-empowered Dinozords and face off with the DARK WARRIOR as they unleash their full power in MEGAZORD BATTLE MODE! At first their evil foe stands up to the onslaught, but when Jason calls on the mighty Power Sword, one colossal blow blasts the Dark Warrior into atoms!

Up on the moon Rita is unbelievably angry. "You dummies, you fools!" she screeches as she turns on her monster helpers. Poor old Squatt and Baboo - they're too polite to point out it was HER plan that went wrong!

Back in the Gym and Juice Bar at Angel Grove, the friends watch proudly as Jason awards Billy his yellow belt in Karate! But Bulk and Skull aren't impressed - they only want to find out if Billy is still the wimp they always thought he was! The brainy Blue Ranger is reluctant to use his new skills on the bullies, but he doesn't have to...Uncle Howard has suddenly realised where he left his incredible formula! Grabbing it from the Juice bar, he quickly makes himself invisible, and goes into action! Bulk and Skull are astonished, as they are suddenly beaten up by invisible hands! Is it Billy's doing? Is it magic? The two oafs are completely bamboozled!
Billy smiles. "Remember...keep your energy tightly centered, like the nucleus of an atom!" he advises the baffled bullies as they crumple to the ground.



POW F

Welcome back to the page devoted to all true POWER PEOPLE out there! Some of you have been writing to tell Rita what a mad maniacal menace she is - but this section is dedicated to genuine POWER RANGER appreciation! We also have a special message from BILLY THE BLUE RANGER - who is here to remind you that a real hero uses brains more than brawn! Watch out for some wisdom (and long words) from Billy after your letters!

EMMA MORLEY writes in from Selston in Nottinghamshire to tell us that she and her friend Debbie are totally obsessed with POWER RANGERS and tape it all the time! Even Emma's dog Cheri watches the show! She tells us that when RITA comes on the screen Cheri won't stop barking!

WAYNE BROOKS from Bedminster Down says his favourite rangers are JASON and TOMMY. He says: "When I'm older, I would like to act as a POWER RANGER, just like Austin St. John and Jason Frank do." Don't forget, Wayne, that many of your TV heroes have athletic, gymnastic and martial arts skills as well as acting ability, so if you want to be a future Ranger, don't forget to stay in good shape and enjoy your sports at school!

Daniella Howe from Exeter thinks our heroes should PULVERISE the two school bullies, BULK and SKULL. She complains: "they're such disgusting horrible creeps they ought to be SPLATTERED! WHY WHY WHY don't the POWER RANGERS sort them out for good? They should get the MEGAZORD to obliterate them! That would be cool!" Hey, calm down Daniella - BULK and SKULL may be a pain in the neck most of the time, but you can't deny they provide plenty of amusement at Angel Grove High! And it would go against the WISDOM OF ZORDON for our dinosaur-powered do-gooders to use their super-abilities on ordinary people - let alone two complete meatheads like Bulk and Skull who don't know any better! Super-powers shouldn't be used for selfish reasons - but in the eternal cosmic fight against evil!

And now a message from one of the gang...

BILLY THE BLUE RANGER SPEAKS!

Here are a few wise words from the POWER RANGERS' scientific sensation and analytical ace! Prepare to get your dictionaries out - you might need them!

ER ANS

POWER-HYPER-BABBLE!

" A real hero tries to be WISE as well as POWERFUL! Zordon imparted a fascinating philosophical insight to me (that means he told me something wise) recently. He said: " The wise man knows what he does NOT know!"

Now at first this sounded like complete NONSENSE to me, but then I stopped to think about it. Isn't it easy in school to pretend you know something that you don't? The teacher says: "Now, you all understood that maths problem, didn't you?" And you are frightened to admit in front of all the class that you didn't even BEGIN to understand it! You sit there and try to look clever, but inside you are completely confused. Now according to Zordon's wisdom, you have to be strong enough and honest enough to admit that you DO NOT KNOW! Some people feel embarrassed to ask questions - they think they're going to look stupid. But, believe me, asking questions is a sign of intelligence!

The greatest scientists and inventors of all time achieved great things because they asked questions no-one else dreamed of asking! So be honest with yourself, and don't be afraid to show some curiosity! Goodbye for now, and keep reading those dictionaries!"

PHENOMENAL POWER RANGERS MOVIE COMPETITION!

It's official! On July 21st 1995 the greatest film this summer, this year, this decade -- in fact ever -- is being released! It is, of course, the film you've all been waiting for. The one, the only, POWER RANGERS - THE MOVIE, featuring all your favourite Rangers and, of course, Rita Repulsa and her loathsome cronies, but then no Power Ranger movie would be complete without her, would it?

The film opens nationally on July 21st to coincide with the school summer holidays. But now, thanks to 20th Century Fox, we've got not one but SIX PAIRS of tickets to give away for the Charity Premiere of the film. It takes place a whole week before the film opens in the Odeon West End, one of the biggest and most impressive cinemas in England! So if you'd like to be the one of the first kids on your block to see the film and you can travel to London on Sunday morning 16th July, then all you have to do is answer the following incredibly simple Power Rangers question, and you and a friend could be watching the movie with the Power Rangers themselves!

To be one of our lucky winners all you have to do is match up the the five teenager heroes with his or her Power Ranger costume. So if you think that Jason is the Pink Ranger then you have to write 2 b and so on until each of your five numbers has a letter after it.

1) TRINI	a) BLACK RANGER
2) JASON	b) PINK RANGER
3) ZACK	c) BLUE RANGER
4) BILLY	d) YELLOW RANGER
5) KIMBERLY	e) RED RANGER

Put your answers along with your name, address, postcode and daytime phone number on a postcard or back of an envelope and send it to: POWER RANGERS - THE MOVIE COMPETITION, Marvel Comics Ltd, Arundel House, 13-15 Arundel St, London WC2R 3DX. The closing date for entries is: June 14th 1995. The prize consists of six sets of two tickets. Children under sixteen years old MUST be accompanied by an adult. There will be no cash alternative to the prize offered and no correspondence can be entered into with the judges. The six correct winning entries will be drawn at random and the winners will be notified by phone and confirmed in writing. Only one entry per person, please.

RITA REPULSA'S POSTBOX

Here it is! Your favourite part of the comic! It's time for wicked witchery and moonlight madness! It's time to laugh at you and your silly letters!

LOOQMAAN PATNI asks me: "Do you understand the Putty Patrol language?" Good question, Looqmaan! That gormless gang of gibbering grey geeks run around like mad idiots going Meebley Bleebley Mblblblflblmm! And you ask me if I understand it?! Of course I don't!!! How could anyone understand that rubbish!

Perhaps all my other little helpers out there could make yourselves useful for once in your silly lives and write to me suggesting what the Putties actually are saying! Looqmaan also asks me to get him a Deluxe Megazord! Do I look like Father Christmas? I'm a wicked witch not the Good Fairy!

HA HA HA HA HA! Why am I laughing? Because of the next letter from dad 'the bad' Martin in Chorley Wood. He writes: I watched a TV programme today in which you and your Puttymen were Hopeless. Frankly, Rita, you don't scare me one little bit. In fact I think your Puttymen are pathetic. They might just as well be made of plasticene. The next time you fancy a fight perhaps you could come down here and take me on...In the meantime just remember who's in charge!"

Well, so-called dad 'the bad', I have to agree with you about those underachieving uglies, the Putties! Maybe I will make my next batch out of plasticene, they coudn't turn out any more useless! As for your incredible outrageous rudeness in challenging me to a fight. I forgive you! With my magic I could bamboozle you in a thousand horrible ways - even turn you into a little spotted newt and add you to the disgusting soup in my witches cauldron! But I'm going to let you off! Why? Because you were so rude to me! I just love being insulted and hated! I do feel sorry for your son J. Martin though. You are obviously such a big fan of mine, I bet he has trouble ever getting this comic off of you!

JOSHUA writes in from HAVERHILL to ask me: "WHAT DO YOU DO ALL DAY?"
HEE HEE HEE! If I told you some of the things I get up to when I'm preparing my diabolical spells, your hair would stand on end, your eyes would pop out, and your knees would turn to green jelly! But I can tell you that I spend most of my time spying on the Mighty Moronic Power Rangers! I have to know exactly the right moment to strike! I also spend quite a lot of time reading all your wonderfully awful letters, and shouting at Squatt and Baboo, like this: YOU DUMMIES! YOU WORTHLESS CRETINS! (Sorry, Joshua, just keeping in practice!) I hope that answer is enough for you! Incidentally, Joshua ends his letter with: HEY, DO YOU KNOW WHAT? YOU NEED SOME BETTER SOLDIERS, MATEY! Thank you, Joshua! Oh dear, what a lot of Putty-bashing this issue! The poor saps will lose all their confidence!

Michael Skehens from Llanharan, South Wales tells me: "I think you are the most horribly naughty person in the universe. I think you are great." thank you, Michael! But what really interests me, is the wicked spell that you and your friend Ross David sent me:
Eye of bat,
Tooth of rat,
Hair of dog,
Tusk of hog,
Unicorn's horn,
Quail's tail,
Season it all with Shells of snail!

Ha ha ha! A delightful piece of sinister sorcery indeed! Hmm, reading your spell has made me feel a bit hungry! I must go and see what deliciously nasty things are cooking in my cauldron.... in the meantime, here comes a fantastically foul and fearsome poster of Goldar for you all!

Don't forget - I love to hear from all my horrible little helpers (I'm talking about you, you idiots!)

RITA'S MONSTER HARVEST

CURSES! CURSES! CURSES! Why am I surrounded by incompetent bumbling blockheads?!! Welcome to what is usually my favourite part of the comic...the bit where I get to see all your spectacularly scary monsters! But SQUATT over-enthusiastically loaded up your best ideas into the MONSTER-MATIC when I wasn't looking, and now my lovely lunar fortress is completely over-run with your creepy and crazy creations!

The terrifying FANG BANG - created by Thomas Lange, age 9 of Hedge End, Southampton - is fighting it out in Finster's lab with the mind-boggling BOGMAN - the invention of Andrew Starbuck of Hinckley, Leicestershire. FANG BANG is a sinister warrior, who can fight like a whirlwind with his swords and spear! Watch out for his spiky horned head, perfect for charging into battle! BOGMAN has the disgusting power to shoot slimeballs out of a hole in his stomach! It's an incredible battle! I wonder who will win?! And will anything be left of the lab by the time they're finished!?

David Hancock of Trowbridge, Wilts has dreamt up a LONG LOST BROTHER FOR SQUATT! This red-faced fury flies off into a ranting rage if anyone touches Squatt! This is bad news for Goldar, who was giving the silly blue monster a friendly arm-wrestling contest, when his LONG LOST BROTHER popped out of the MONSTER-MATIC! Now David's demon is chasing Goldar all over my base, blasting him with the lethal laser from the power coin on his chest, and trying to land a blow with his axe or sword! They're turning this place into a battlefield! HEE HEE HEE! See Goldar jump when that laser comes his way!

And now behold the unbelievably disgusting SPUE MAN! Unfortunately, the reader who thought up this revolting fiend forgot to send me his name and address! If you recognise this sickly slimeball, write in and let me know who you are!

SPUE MAN is trying to impress me and prove that he is the most menacing monster of them all, by attacking MR COBRA, the sly and snake-like demon thought up by Conal Bryant, age 6 of Clapton in London! SPUE MAN is bombarding his enemy with SPUE BOMBS, but the elusive MR COBRA is fighting back with his crushing, entwining tail, his fierce fangs and his hypnotic cobra stare! They really are turning my fortress upside down with their awesome battle!

OH NO! Now things are getting even crazier! There are lasers, spue bombs, fists and spears flying everywhere! Baboo is hiding under the table! Squatt is trying to hide behind ME! The final horror out of the Monster-Matic is THE DEVIL MONSTER from Michael Booth age 8! This evil menace is blasting all the other monsters with rockets! And he's unleashing his mysterious mystical energies! Monsters are blasting and bashing each other on all sides! Oh dearie, dearie me...it looks as if you're going to have to send me some MORE ideas for monsters...I don't think there's going to be much LEFT of these ones to fight the POWER GEEKS with! Just wait till I get my hands on that brainless SQUATT! If he ever touches the Monster-Matic again, I'll SQUASH him! Still, it was kind of fun, wasn't it?

HA HA HA!

Well, my little horrors, it's time to leave the RITA ZONE for this issue! Don't listen to that pompous old bag of wind, ZORDON, keep sending in your delightful INSULTS, your incredible MONSTERS and your ever-drippy little PROBLEMS! Write soon, you know you all love to HATE me!

Yours wickedly, RITA!
